

Cryptos Are Exploding - Let's Bring You up to Speed

Retrieved Friday 6th of October 2017 08:15:54 PM

Only a quick note from me today.

I'm writing to you backstage during a short break at our investment conference at the IET Savoy. It's been a busy, but thoroughly en

All of our speakers have been hugely informative.

Tim Price offered up a rational solution for how to survive what we are calling "The War on You".

And MEP Daniel Hannan's presentation was everything I expected from such an esteemed political speaker.

But Sam Volkering's talk on cryptocurrencies really struck a chord with me. Sam looked at the bigger picture for cryptos, and what c expecting them to.

Sam knows this sector like the back of his hand – and he's forecasting huge disruption to not only the financial system, but to societ

I believe it's absolutely critical that you get up to speed on cryptocurrencies too – from an investment perspective.

It'll tell you everything you need to know about what is currently the fastest rising market on the planet.

It's a great read... but I won't take up any more of your time now.

I've got a busy afternoon a of me, and presentations from the likes of Akhil Patel, Eoin Treacy, Nick Hubble, Charlie Morris and Bill B

Many thanks,
